SIDE SPLITTING EVENING WAS A HOOT!

What a fun time we had on Joke Night, March 26th! So many jokes were told that we forgot to take photos of our members. But some of our closest actors stopped by with their own photos so we're using those instead.

Our hostess, Midge Reisman, provided a great array of wonderful noshables, and Norma Saken provided her creative catering skills... so everything tasted good and looked beautiful too.

President Renee Lewis asked members to get active on the board and also asked for ideas for upcoming events.

Later on, we celebrated Norma's upcoming birthday with a card signed by all, presented her with her favorite flavored cake and sang to her.

Thanks to everyone who told jokes and shared this evening of humor. We especially appreciated our two actors, Richard Lavin and Armand LeSage, who told jokes with foreign accents.

A Joke Told at the Social:

On their way to get married, a young Catholic couple were involved in a fatal car accident. The couple found themselves sitting outside the Pearly Gates waiting for St. Peter to process them into Heaven.

While waiting they began to wonder; Could they possibly get married in Heaven? When St. Peter arrived they asked him if they could get married in Heaven. St. Peter said, 'I don't know. This is the first time anyone has asked. Let me go find out,' and he left.

The couple sat and waited for an answer.... for a couple of months. While they waited, they discussed the pros and cons. If they were allowed to get married in Heaven, should they get married, what with the eternal aspect of it all? What if it doesn't work? Are we stuck in Heaven together forever?' Another month passed. St. Peter finally returned, looking somewhat bedraggled. Yes,' he informed the couple, 'You can get married in Heaven.'

'Great!' said the couple. 'But we were just wondering; what if things don't work out? Could we also get a divorce in Heaven?'

St. Peter, red-faced with anger, slammed his clipboard on the ground. 'What's wrong?' asked the frightened couple.

'OH, COME ON!!!' St. Peter shouted. 'It took me 3 months to find a priest up here! Do you have ANY idea how long it'll take to find a lawyer?'

When a new child visited our Sunday school, the teacher greeted him and asked his age. The little boy held up four fingers. "Oh, you're four," said the teacher. "And when will you be 5?"

The child stared at her and after a few seconds replied, "When I hold up the other finger."
